

WORKSHEET 4.4A: EVENT CARDS

Copy on to first colour

Your roof is leaking badly due to the unusually heavy rains, and you have to fix it. One person can't grow bananas this round	Increased competition from multinational companies means you don't export as many bananas, you must let go of staff. One person can't grow bananas this round
Your mother is ill. You must take her to the district hospital (a one day walk, each way). Two people can't grow bananas this round.	Pests have attacked your newly formed bananas. You must throw them away and start again.
Heavy rains have washed away the road. Half your bananas will over ripen before you can get them to the shippers. Throw half this years' crop away.	The packhouse has been damaged by torrential rains and serve winds. Two members of your group are needed in the repair effort.
Black Sigatoka fungal disease has attacked your banana trees. You'll lose 50% of your crop this due to poor productivity and premature ripening.	Increased oil prices have caused shipping costs to rise. The company you sell your bananas to will only pay you 75% of your normal price.
You've produced a bumper crop! You make an extra $15 this year.	Exposure to the intensive use of agrichemicals has caused workers to become ill. Two less people to grow bananas this year.