A message from our CEO

Thank you for your interest in joining the Fairtrade Foundation – what a moment to get involved! We're on the brink of something truly transformational, and we're thrilled that you're considering being part of it.

Fairtrade is more than a movement – it's a global force for good. United by a bold vision, we're working towards a world where farmers and workers can thrive; earning fair wages, living with dignity, and building sustainable futures. For decades, we've been the trailblazers of fairness in trade, climate justice, and human rights – and we're just getting started.

I'm proud to say that the energy, passion, and commitment across our teams and partners is nothing short of inspiring. We're writing the next chapter of Fairtrade's story, and it's going to be bold, impact led, values driven and full of heart.

That's where you come in.

Choosing to work at Fairtrade means choosing purpose. Whatever your role, whether you are shaping policy, developing partnerships, delivering campaigns or enabling our operations, your work contributes to meaningful change. The impact of what we do reaches far beyond our office walls, helping producers and workers build sustainable futures for themselves, their families and their communities.

But what makes Fairtrade truly special is our people. You will join a community of passionate, talented and committed colleagues who care deeply about the difference we make and the values we stand for. We are ambitious about our mission, collaborative in our approach and committed to creating an inclusive culture where diverse perspectives are welcomed, respected and celebrated.

The challenges we seek to address are complex, and there is still much work to do. That's what makes this such an exciting time to join us. We are continually evolving, learning and finding new ways to strengthen our impact. We need curious minds, fresh ideas and people who are motivated to help create a fairer future.

We live and breathe our values: accountability, integrity, respect, and partnership. I look forward to welcoming someone who shares our passion for fairness, justice and impact, and is excited to help us build a stronger, more resilient Fairtrade Foundation.

If that inspires you, I hope you'll consider becoming part of the Fairtrade movement.

Eleanor Harrison
CEO – Fairtrade Foundation

What we do at Fairtrade

Fairtrade is more than a label on your coffee or bananas - it's a way to make trade work better for the people behind our favourite products.

Our Vision

Fairtrade Foundation's vision is a world in which all producers can enjoy secure and sustainable livelihoods, fulfil their potential and decide on their future.

Our Mission

Our mission is to connect disadvantaged producers and consumers, promote fairer trading conditions and empower producers to combat poverty, strengthen their position and take more control over their lives.

Fairtrade is a movement for change that works directly with businesses, consumers and campaigners to make trade deliver for farmers and workers.

Fairtrade achieves this by rallying a global community of millions – farmers and workers, supply chain partners, brands, retailers, shoppers, schools, campaigners, government – to pay fair prices and uphold fair production standards and practices.

Fair prices provide a lifeline for vulnerable farmers and workers at times of need. They also provide long-term investment in production, community, and environmental projects to create a fairer, better world.

Fair standards and practices promote sustainable farming to protect biodiversity and the environment; deliver training for women so they can participate and lead; secure workers' rights; and build climate resilience.

We are best known as the independent, not-for-profit body behind the FAIRTRADE Mark, a product label assuring consumers that their purchase helps farmers and workers in low- and middle-income countries secure a better deal.

Over the past thirty years, the FAIRTRADE Mark has become the best known and most trusted ethical mark among UK consumers. It ensures fairer terms of trade between farmers and buyers, helps to protect workers' rights, and provides the framework to empower producers to build thriving farms and organisations.

Beyond certification, the Fairtrade Foundation is deepening its impact by delivering specialist programmes and expertise to support communities with additional training and worker support, whether that's empowering women coffee farmers or responding to crises such as Covid-19.

Our Values

Our values connect us to a shared purpose. They shape how we collaborate, make decisions and drive change. By living them every day, we create the culture and impact we want to see in the world.

Respect

We treat everyone with dignity and empathy. That includes farmers and workers, our partners and our team members.

We champion inclusion, celebrate diversity, and aim to be a workplace where everyone feels heard and valued.

Partnership

We believe that change is only possible when we work together. We build strong lasting relationships – from farmers and workers to businesses, governments and supporters.

Internally, we collaborate across teams and listen deeply to each other to achieve shared goals.

Accountability

We are transparent about our decisions and take ownership of our actions. Everyone at Fairtrade is encouraged to be open, honest and committed to continuous learning.

We hold ourselves to the same high standards we ask of others.

Integrity

Fairness is the heart of what we do. We uphold ethical practices in every aspect of our work – from commercial relationships, safeguarding to internal governance. We speak up to power and act with courage, even when it's difficult.
