

BREW IT FAIR

WITH MS SAGRI KUMARI

Sagri had to move across the country to be able to support her family. At the Fairtrade estate she now works on, she's found her place in a community of women who look out for each other.

“

HERE WE'RE GIVEN PERMANENT JOBS – NO ONE HERE IS TEMPORARY. BEING PERMANENT MEANS MEDICAL [CARE] AND CHILDREN'S SCHOOL FEES ARE ALL FREE.”

All of the people behind the tea we drink should have access to decent pay and safe working conditions. Let's call on the UK government to demand fairer trade for tea workers.
