

Practice your writing skills with an essay challenge. Choose from the two topics below.

Why Fairtrade is the right choice for people and planet

OR

Multinational companies: the cause or solution to the climate crisis?

What does the world you want to see look like?

Create your vision for the world you want, for the planet and everything on it. Share your artwork, prose, poem or film by emailing schools@fairtrade.org.uk with your name and age.

Conduct a study on a cocoa-growing country of your choice.

Research the climate, the weather and native wildlife. How will the climate crisis impact your country in the next 50 years? How will this affect the people who live there?

Create a poster of your findings.

You are the Head Chef at the 'Choose the world you want' restaurant.

Design a menu that makes a difference in the world.

Talk about it!

Tell a family member or friend about the climate crisis and how it is impacting farmers in other parts of the world.

Find out about a young person who has made a difference in the world.

What change did they make?

How did they do it?

Write a short biography about that person.

Research how to achieve a Fairtrade School Award.

What steps are required? What difference will it make for farmers and workers around the world?

Create a plan and present it to your class. If your school already has an award, why not inform another school?

Using social media to raise awareness of an issue is called digital campaigning.

Use social media to raise awareness of the difference that Fairtrade makes to people around the world and the planet that we live on. #ChooseTheWorldYouWant

